El Cajon Mayor Says Public Information City's Big Problem

The Mayor of El Cajon warned Lemon Grove businessmen last week that "The biggest problem you will face if you ever become a city is the problem of public information.'

Mayor Karl Tuttle spoke before the Lemon Grove Men's Club.

He said that planning and zoning are "one big problem in El Cajon or any other city, and the problem is big only because the general public doesn't understand why the planning commission and the city council follow the procedures that they do."

Mayor Tuttle said that in a "general law" city like El Cajon and most other San Diego County cities the city government is run according to state law and all zoning and planning procedures are set up in that law.

He added that there are "many problems" in El Cajon, "but they are all due to the abnormal growth in Southern California.

"The ordinary citizen doesn't see the problem," he said, "and he doesn't have much of a voice in running things.

"But when budget time comes around then the citizen really can flex his muscles. If he wants some service cut out so as to cut the city's expenditures, budget time is the time for getting upand yelling."

The El Cajon mayor said that some services are increasing rapidly. For instance, the recreation department spends $100,00 a year —not counting an equal amount for "physical assets."

He said that the "vital" problem of public information must be solved, "because we must tell people why we are imposing certain regulations on them. There are things that we must live by in a complex society for the sake of health and safety."

Two San Diego Transit Co. officials will address the Men's Club this Friday. They are James Haugh, vice president and general manager, and Edward Reeder, superintendent of traffic.

Bar Operator Wins $9,500 On Races

"Betting the ponies" may not be financially rewarding over the long pull but once in a while it pays.

At least that is what the family of Ted Fetters of Lemon Grove believes and the family has a stack of U.S. currency amounting to $9,500 to prove it.

Fetters, operator of Pal's Cafe on Imperial Avenue in Lemon Grove, together with his wife, and his bartender Ernest "Winkie" Wiun, 3714 Nassau Drive, shared two tickets on the "5-10" pool Sunday at Caliente race track in Tijuana. Fetters' wife, Estelle, made the choices. They won.

Fetters had one and one-half share. Winkie had the remaining part. Each ticket paid $6,300.

Fetters said he would pay off the mortage on his house at 3445 Vista Ave. in Lemon Grove and save some to pay the taxes to Uncle $ugar.

Winkie said he would pay his bills.

The DIMMER VIEW

by MAX GOODWIN

Don Robinson, editor of the American Press, took a slightly dim view of modern education the other day in his editorial corner of the news magazine he edits for newspaper people.

Some of his opinions line up rather solidly with those I have occasionally heard expressed by sincere members of the teaching craft while other of his opinions may be a little off base. In any event, his approach is refreshing whether it was conjured to develop reaction or not.

Robinson categorically advocates the return to the little red school house.

He says he can't buy the philosophy that "progress is being made in education throughout the country" although newspapers say that it is.

"I am becoming increasinging convinced that all the fancy school buildings, the demands for more and more extra curricula facilities, the unimaginative requirements for teachers, and the insistence upon higher education for all nit-wits, has resulted in little progress.

"In the first place, I feel that the dedicated type of teacher, who was more interested in imparting information to tomorrow's citizens than in the pay-scale or creature comforts, has been pretty well eliminated by the modern system. Emphasis on meeting standard scholastic requirements, rather than on character and ability to command respect, seems to have put teaching in the 'skilled labor' rather than the leadership classification.

"In the second place, I feel the elaborate school buildings, built with the last tax dollars that can be squeezed out of property owners, give the average student a false sense of values about education. Pupils are taught early to be more impressed by the superficialities of their establishment than by the opportunities for gathering knowledge.

"So far as basic learning is concerned, the products of our modern education factories certainly do not appear to have absorbed the knowledge of reading, writing and arithmetic which was drilled into their grandparents by the inspired teacher in the one-room school houses. Mass education, like mass production, can-

Fiesta del Pacifico Opens Friday Night In Balboa Park

The 1959 Fiesta del Pacifico will open Friday night for 15 days of music, dancing, entertainment, parades, sports events, dressing in fancy contumes and generally enjoying life.

John W. Quimby, Fiesta president, will declare this year's observance open at a ceremony starting at 8 p.m. Friday at the Spreckels Organ Pavilion in Balboa Park.

The Fiesta queen will be crowned at a colorful ball under the stars at the Organ Pavilion in the park Saturday evening. Gay costumes and colored lights will enhance the gaiety of the event, and the Fiesta orchestra will play for dancing.

Dancers of many nationalities, wearing their native costumes, will whirl through a variety of folk dances at the Fiesta International Folk Dance Festival at the Organ Pavilion from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday. About 200 dancers are expected to demonstrate dances of 30 nations.

Rock Company Asks Permit for Plant In Spring Valley

Application Follows Approval of Permit For Lakeside Plant

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — One of the county's older road materials companies has asked for a permit to operate in the southern part of Spring Valley.

This application, from the V. R. Dennis Co., is to come before the County Planning Commission at a public hearing on Sept. 11. The company is asking for a permit for a site located between La Presa and Sunnyside near Sweetwater Lake.

The Dennis permit would be for a rock quarry, sand and gravel pit, borrow pit for rock and gravel and a processing plant for crushed rock. The site is described as in the vicinity of the intersection of the Sweetwater and Paradise Valley roads. It is south of the old La Presa airport.

The planning commission last Friday recommended to the County Board of Supervisors approval of the application of John M. Ferry and John A. McNeil for an asphalt paving plant in Slaughterhouse Canyon near Lakeside.

New County Tax Rate Nine Cents Higher This Year

The County Board of Supervisors this week set a new county tax rate which is 9 cents per $100 valuation higher than last year's rate.

The new rate, coupled with a reassessment of Lemon Grove property which raised property values, could mean greatly increased taxes for local residents.

Supervisors set a rate of $2.07 to raise funds for the county's $70,803, 848 budget — which is $8,580,920 higher than last year's budget. The tax rate will raise $24,394,053; the rest of the finances will be raised by special revenues.

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley will pay a 9-cent county library tax which is being assessed in all unincorporated areas.

BICYCLE BREAKDOWN Tragedy in the form of a broken gear-shifting chain struck the bicycle of Paul Louer, 10, of 7460 Madison in Lemon Grove the other day in downtown Lemon Grove. With him here is Carl Hoberg, 11, of 7460 Madison, shown inspecting the wheel of Paul's bicycle. Later, the mechanism was repaired and the two boys were seen riding around town.

Subdivision Sign Wins Over Grove Protestants

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—The application of a Lemon Grove subdivider for permission to erect advertising signs was approved Friday by the County Planning Commission, over the protests of neighbors.

But the commission also ordered an investigation of charges that the firm is illegally operating a real estate office and an escrow office in a residential area.

Applicant for the permits for the signs was the Hale Co., for advertising the Halecrest subdivisions. The signs are to be located on Angelus Avenue.

Joseph Payson protested, on behalf of himself and other property owners, he said. "I feel there are enough signs in the area pointing out where Halecrest is," he declared.

A sign on a hill in the area was described by Payson as "that gigantic monster." He said the applicant might move away and leave the sign.

Dr. Willis H. Miller, county planning director, said the company had put up its signs without asking for permits and was operating a sales office and an escrow office without permits.

Miller said a special use permit made a sales office possible, but not an escrow office.

"That's drawing it pretty fine," declared Commissioner George V. Johnson. "After all, escrow is part of the processing of selling."

An estimated 5,000 new textbooks constitute a mammoth pre-school project for Parent-Teacher Association members and some of their children at Spring Valley Junior High School.
School Vice Principal Donald McClard, in charge of the textbook project, said an enrollment of 1,250 is expected this fall, as compared with last year's 750. The teaching staff will total 53, including 48 classroom teachers, compared with 27 classroom teachers last year.

Chamber Sets Membership Drive Amid Festivities

Will Push for Signups To Swell Participation In Local Promotions

Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce Week will be marked here September 14 to 19 with street dancing, band concerts, free lemonade, dedication of newly improved Imperial Avenue and a long list of other activities.

Purpose of Chamber of Commerce Week, according to Bill Parker, chamber president, is to publicize a membership drive designed to bring current membership total from 180 members to 300 or more.

A week-long schedule of activities is planned, but the High spot will be Friday night September 18 when Imperial Avenue from Broadway to Lester will be blocked off for a schedule of events which includes a band concert, street dancing and a fiesta-western costume contest.

To mark the week, Fiesta del Pacifico has set Lemon Grove Week at its Westgate Park. Johnny Green's "Stars Over the Pacific" will be staged September 14 and 15 of that week. There will be no show on September 16 and 17. Arthur Fiedler, director of the Boston Symphony, will present a concert September 18, and Ricky Nelson, teevee favorite, will be featured September 19.

Activities in Lemon Grove will include a ribbon cutting at the intersection of Broadway and Imperial at 8 p.m. Friday, September 18. This will be preceded by a band concert by the Mt. Miguel High School Pep Band. The combined fire departments of Lemon Grove and Spring Valley will put on a fire safety display in an area on Imperial midway between Broadway and North.

A thirteen-piece dance band, supplied by the Fiesta del Pacifico organization will provide music for street dancers until midnight.

Four singers, chosen as winners in the Fiesta Search for Talent contest, will also perform. The singers are Paul Sykes, Sandra Crosthwaite, and Elaine and Pauline Simeons, a duo.

Just prior to the dance a parade of county horse riders will ride the length of the newly improved. Supervisor Bird, in whose district the road improvement is, will cut the ribbon to start the street dancing at 8 p.m.

During the day free lemonade will be served in the plaza by Lemon Grove Junior Chamber of Commerce members.

All week long, every day, chamber of commerce members and directors will be inviting local residents and business people to sign up for the chamber. Pledge work-cards have been distributed to board members for membership work that week.

Jesse Lee, chamber manager, said a complete time table would be completed by next week.

No Reward For Street-Sign -Base

Two weeks ago this newspaper published a photograph taken at the corner of Broadway and Grove. The picture showed a concrete octagon street-sign-base and other unsightly objects. The sign base had been left on its side at the corner by County Public Works after it had been hit by an autoist in an accident which hospitalized two persons. A new, stronger sign-base was erected and the old one was left to gather dust.

This week, County Public Works, or someone, removed the octagon base, improving the appearance of the corner to that degree.

No reward is offered for the return of the base, to our knowledge.

Spinal Checkup Offered Students By Chiropractor

A Lemon Grove chiropractor said this week that he has been asked to participate in a national "back to school spinal checkup" program which will be free to all school children during the first two weeks in September.

Dr. Robert C. Conlin, 3440 West St., said that examination and correction of a youngster's spine may prevent a breakdown in health in later life.

Kindergarten through high school children are eligible for free spinal examinations in the offices of those doctors taking part in the program.

Purpose of the examination is detection of possible spinal misalignments and posture defects which, if not corrected, could cause disease or disability in later life, Dr. Conlin said.

Parents or guardians of eligible students are asked to telephone Dr. Conlin, HO 9-7460 in advance for an appointment.

PROMENADERS

Plans are well under way by the Promenaders Square Dance Club, for its tenth annual dance, October 3. Tickets are now on sale and the public is invited, according to a report last week. Tickets will also be available at the door the night of the dance.

A surprise party in the form of a "This is Your Life" theme was given Wednesday night for two charter members of the Promenaders, Mr. and Mrs. (Ir) and Goldie, Kaupp. On hand to congratulate them were many of their old friends and relatives.

Frank Dyson was club caller for the August 26 dance at the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce hall. He was assisted by guest callers Al Rider, Jack Schmitke, Jim Clark and Larry Garrett, all of the Kactus Kickers, who were being hosted that night. It was party night and the theme for the evening was "Fiesta." Many prizes were awarded.

FRONTIER SQUARES

Frontier Squares had their monthly board meeting at the home of Amy and Bob Chagnon.

The board devoted most of the evening to final arrangements for their "Presidents' Ball," set for Saturday, Sept. 26. Every detail has been planned so completely that this sixth presidents' dance promises to be the finest of all. This is a buffet supper-dance and menu includes such treats as sliced ham and cheese, baked beans, tuna salad, loads of "trimmings," bread and hot coffee.

All this along with the suave callin' of Bill Keller makes this a "must" dance.

Tickets are now available from Frontier Squares club members, and since this is a limited attendance dance it is suggested you obtain (or reserve) your tickets early. Call CO 4-1483 or CO 4-4963.

MERRY WHIRLERS

Merry Whirlers had a pot luck board meeting at Thelma and Augie Walton's Tuesday night. A fine time was had, lots of good food and many plans discussed for the future. A Square Dance Breakfast is being planned for sometime in the fall. A new beginners' class will be starting in October. Watch for the dates and places.

We will be dancing this Friday night, Sept. 4, 8 to 10:30 at La Mesa Junior High School to the calling of Ron East, back from vacation. We will be hosting the Thunderbirds and the Alpine Alemanders. Guests and old and new members heartily welcomed.

Once Over Lightly

by Don Wilson

Recently, I wrote about our family and its problems in deciding what to do with our one book of trading stamps.

We had thought, I wrote, that we might get a swimming pool, but we discovered that at our normal rate of buying it would take 62½ years to save up enough stamps.

We gave up and got a plastic waste basket.

And a few days later I received a package from George A. Scott who is president of the Walker Scott Co. which is a pretty big outfit in these parts.

In the package was a letter from Mr. Scott in which he said that the story had "intrigued and challenged" him.

And he sent me 10,000 S&H Green Stamps.

—o—

Dear Mr. Scott:

Your generous and timely gift has plunged the Wilson family into the depths of confusion.

In case you hadn't figured it out, 10,000 stamps will fill a little more than eight books.

If we Wilsons could get tangled up in problems while deciding what to get with one book of stamps, you can imagine the uproar that ensued when we tried to decide what to get with 8 books.

First, Paula announced that she had settled the matter: we would get a nylon-net play pen for little Ronnie, who is just reaching the age where he moves at the speed of sound the minute you turn your back.

We agreed that the play pen would be nice.

Then Paula reconsidered.

The play pen would take all 8 books and there wouldn't be anything left for Katy, who is nine years old and not entirely sympathetic to having baby brother take over the household.

So Paula dedided that we would get a diferent type of play pen and get something for Katy too.

Katy insisted that we should get something for Ronnie, Mommy and Daddy and that she didn't need anything for herself. She uttered this noble statement somewhat wistfully and looked relieved when we rejected the idea.

Then somebody remembered that Daddy had written the story which started things and maybe he should get the whole business. This was somewhat of a switch, because the family seems to have a hobby of giving Daddy the business, but in a different way.

So I objected, nobly, saying that Mommy had given me the idea in the first place and that she should use the stamps.

First thing you know, we were all shouting at the tops of our voices.

"Okay!" I yelled over the din. "Paula, you decide what we're going to get and let's go get it."

So, miraculously, everybody shut up and Paula made a list of things to get.

We got in the car and went down to the Walker Scott S&H Green Stamp Redemption Center.

As we walked in the door, Paula turned and as a matter of routine asked Katy:

"Did you bring the stamps?"

"Yipes!" said Katy.

So we went back to the car and got them.

In the redemption center, we managed to forget completely what we had in mind and settled for a whole armful of other things, after two hours of running the clerks ragged.

But it finally wound up with Paula getting a new can opener, Katy getting a world globe for studying geography, Ronnie acquiring a car seat with steering wheel so he could help me drive, and me becoming the proud owner of a new wallet.

So, Mr. Scott, we have completely abandoned our swimming pool project.

But we made an impression on the clerks in the redemption center.

Sincerely,
Don Wilson

Grove Schools Seek Substitute Teachers

Although the Lemon Grove School District is completely staffed with fully-credentialed teachers, a schools official said this week, it is often necessary to employ substitute teachers for short periods during the school year. Persons holding valid California elementary credentials were requested to notify the local Education Center on Lincoln (HO 9-4134) if they desire to do substitute work in Lemon Grove during the coming term.

Those holding junior high or secondary credentials are eligible to substitute at the junior high level, the official said. An elementary credential also is valid at this level. Since substitutes' preferences usually are for the elementary grades, kindergarten through sixth, a shortage of qualified persons at the junior high level sometimes exists. Further information concerning substitute work may be obtained by calling the superintendent's office at the above number.

JUNIOR HIGH BAND TO MARCH IN EL CAJON

Lemon Grove Junior High Band will be among 21 outstanding musical groups featured in the 13th Annual El Cajon Mother Goose Parade, Sunday, November 22, Band Chairman Hamilton Judy announced this week. Among other outstanding musical organizations in the Mother Goose Parade this year are the Bonham Brothers Boys' Band, the Marine Corps Recruit Depot Band, the Naval Training Center Band, the Grossmont, Helix, Mt. Miguel and El Cajon Valley High School Bands, and the San Diego State College Marching Band. El Cajon is the host band.

Tents to Serve Some Spring Valley Pupils

Doubling up of pupils from the not-yet-finished Avondale School in Spring Valley Estates into other school will force some classes to be held in tents at Spring Valley Junior High School.

This was revealed this week by Dr. Ted Dixon of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District.

The new "classrooms" won't be normal tents, Dr. Dixon said, but will be wooden frames covered with canvas and open on one side.

School Lunchrooms Girding for Rush Of Hungry Kids

Lunchrooms at the various schools in the Lemon Grove School District are staffed and stocked, ready for the first noon bell, the signal for hundreds of hungry pupils to crowd into the district's seven dining rooms.

According to Mrs. Ruth Pfister, lunchroom supervisor, seven managers with approximately 20 helpers are already preparing to serve daily hot lunches for 2,000 students. Although the local governing board has not yet established prices for the 1959-1960 term, it is anticipated that current rates will continue.

Lunches for elementary pupils are only 25 cents; junior high pupils pay 30 cents. The price includes a well-balanced meal, with dessert and one-third quart of milk. Individual bottles of milk at five cents may be purchased by those who prefer to carry a sack lunch from home.

Lemon Grove School lunchrooms are well-supervised, regularly inspected, and boast high-quality meals. In cooperation with teachers in the classrooms, pupils are taught the values of good nutrition and the courtesies of group dining. Lunchroom employees, who have been attending special conferences, classes, and workshops in meal planning, nutrition studies, and purchasing, are fully trained and qualified to provide the type of program parents wish for their children.

New Grove Teachers Equal Total In All Schools Here 15 Years Ago

The number of new teachers this fall in Lemon Grove Schools is about equal to the number on the total staff just 15 years ago. These 30 new instructors, coming here from all parts of the United States, represent the growth of Lemon Grove, and according to a school official, the community's willingness to fill its classrooms with competent, well-qualified teachers.

Last week this newspaper featured ten teachers who will soon be introduced to the students of the junior high. This week those from San Altos, Golden Avenue, and special classes are sketched. A final summary of teachers new to Monterey Heights, San Miguel, and Vista La Mesa will appear soon.

Mrs. Judith Bergstrom comes to the fifth grade at San Altos with over two years experience. A graduate of Chicago Teachers College with a BE degree, she also attended the University of Illinois. Miss Archterberg, who will teach kindergarten at San Altos, obtained her BA from San Jose State after attending Fresno State and the University of Hawaii. With three years teaching experience, she is active in several professional groups and has toured Europe, Mexico and Hawaii.

Other San Altos instructors include Gloria Azizian, first grade teacher, who has three years of experience in the classroom. A graduate of Teachers College of Connecticut, she also attended Columbia University. Miss Beverly Snow, sixth grade teacher, graduated from San Diego State and also attended the National University of Mexico. A pianist, she speaks Spanish and has traveled extensively in Canada, Mexico, and Europe. Miss Edith Pancock, who received her BA degree from Whittier and attended the University of Hawaii, will teach the first grade at San Altos. She has two years teaching experience and belongs to several professional associations.

New to Golden Avenue School is David Fortney, who teaches the sixth grade. He secured his BA degree at Colorado State College and has served in the Wyoming Air National Guard. He belongs to the National Social Studies Council. Miss Alice Milne returns to Lemon Grove and Golden Avenue. She taught two years here previously. A graduate of San Diego State with a BA degree, she is scheduled for a first grade.

Mrs. Doris Neely, also first grade at Golden, is a graduate of San Diego State and attended Santa Barbara College. She speaks Spanish and has traveled in Hawaii. Billy M. Peterson, with two years experience, will teach the fifth grade at Golden.

He has served in the U.S. Army, traveled in Alaska, and is a former president of a Future Teachers of America club. He obtained his BA from Adams State College in Colorado and attended New Mexico Western.

Garland Gilliam, who will teach the Special Training class at Golden, has 11 years teaching experience plus substitute experience here at Lemon Grove. A graduate of Virginia Union University of Pennsylvania, and San Diego State College. Richard Stowers, who will work in the fields of speech correction and developmental reading, graduated from San Diego State with a BA degree. Formerly in the U.S. Navy, he is a member of Phi Delta Kappa.

"In my opinion," Robinson concludes, "a group of fifteen or twenty small children, gathered together in a small building for the sole purpose of learning, and taught by a teacher who is more concerned with their wefare than her own, would still get a much finer education than is available in our present million dollar monuments to learning.

My good friend G. C. Patten, whom I have met only through correspondence and have learned to admire through the columns of the weekly newspaper he edits and publishes in Adel, Georgia, passed on a macaronic poem the other day.

He said there are lots of articles written about the weekly newspaper editor. All is not fun, says he, in printing a newspaper, but the good offstes the bad many, many times, especially when you have fine people to work with.

This little poem, entitled "To The Editor, Bless Him," is worth its printing, Patten says.

"An editor knocked at the Pearly Gates,
His face was scared and cold;
He stood before the man of fate
For admission to the Fold.
What have you done, St. Peter asked,
To gain admission here?
I've been an Editor, sir, he said,
For many and many a year.
The Pearly Gates swung open wide,
St. Peter touched the bell.
Come in, he said, and choose your harp,
You've had your share of hell."

School Board Studies Property Acquisition

The La Mesa-Spring Valley School District board of trustees Monday night took under consideration the results of contracts and the need to maintain a proper schedule for acquisition of several parcels of property in the Spring Valley area for future school developments.

For the proposed La Presa Junior High School it will be necessary to purchase four parcels. One parcel containing 5.34 acres and belonging to Mrs. Ida Army is already in escrow, the proposed price, $33,000. The other three parcels are: 9.34 acres from the Paso Builders Inc., and the proposed price, $59,000; 7.52 acres from W. R. Corey and Kenneth Golden, the cost, $44,000; and 3.53 acres from the Title Insurance and Trust Co., the cost being $23,000. The last three named are not in escrow.

For the proposed La Presa Elementary School No. 2, the land being owned by Corey and Golden, it is 10.39 acres and the proposed cost, $63,500. This is not in escrow.

The proposed Rancho Elementary School, also in South Spring Valley, the land belonging to Bollenbacher and Kelton (housing developers), has an area of 10.73 acres, and the proposed cost, $61,000. Not in escrow.

The Loma Elementary School site (proposed) on part of the Sharp Ranch, east of Casa de Oro, has an area of 10.48 acres and the proposed cost, $50,000. Not in escrow.

Regarding the reopening of bids on the Lemon Avenue Elementary School site development, the firm of Gray, Stanfield and Crittenden was low bidder, the bid being $21,695. There were four other bidders, one being R. E. Hazard, whose original bid of $28,695 could not be accepted because it was over the state allowance.

In other business, the board approved a bid by the district of $885.80 for a 35-passenger bus, to be purchased from the Cardiff School District. It was felt that with additional transportaion problems wihin the district, due to Avondale and Maryland Avenue schools that an extra bus is necessary.

The board of trustees also approved purchases of audio visual equipment for the district, amounting to $8,054.06, and 276 folding chairs amounting to $1,247.52.

What's Doing In the PTA?

The Spring Valley Junior High School PTA will play host to the teachers and staff of the Spring Valley Junior High School at a "Chuck-wagon" style luncheon, Tuesday, beginning at noon in the school cafetorium. Mrs. Milton F. Wright is chairman.

At a recent board meeting of the PTA, John N. Mortenson was elected treasurer to succeed Marvin Soden, who has been transferred to El Centro by the Pacific Tel. and Tel. Co.

—o—

The 1956-1960 executive board for the Bancroft Elementary School PTA includes: President, Mrs. John G. Johnson; first vice president, Mrs. James McCarthy; second Vice President, Donald Brackman; Recording Secretary, Mrs. V. Martin; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Frank Berger Jr.; Treasurer, Mrs. Charles Sonnenburg; Historian, Mrs. Garland McCurdy; Auditor, Mrs. Thomas C. Smith; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Charles Jackson.

The Theme for the year is "Know, Know, a Thousand Times Know!" This means, of course, know your school. The first meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 17. This will be a patio meeting followed by classroom visits.

The program committee of the San Miguel PTA met recently at the home of Mrs. R. J. Collette. The programs for the coming year were discussed. Some of the highlights will be: a prominent speaker during American Education Week in November; the Christmas Program; Dads' Night in January, a repeat of a most successful program last year and a Home Fashion Show.

Grand Opening Set for Giant Bowling Palace

"A New World of Entertainment" for every member of the family comes to Lemon Grove with the September 5 grand opening of the glamorous new 40-lane Lemon Grove Bowlero at 7065 Broadway, near College Avenue.

"Bowlero spells bowling for every member of the family," C. V. "Tommy" Thompson, general manager of California and Arizona installations. declared. "And we'll have a program for everyone—mom, dad, the youngsters and even grandma and grandpa—in the comfortable surroundings that have become a trademark of Bowlero."

The Lemon Grove Bowlero is the fourth in an organization that was featured last year by Life Magazine for its concept of "The new Luxury World of Bowling." Other Bowlero bowling centres are located in Clifton, N.J., Mission Valley in San Diego and Phoenix, Ariz.

League and open bowlers will be welcomed by a host of "firsts" and the finest in Brunswick automatic equipment when Bowlero opens its doors.

For the evening league and "open" bowler there will be the most modern Brunswick equipment, meeting rooms, players benches, food and beverage service and, of course, refrigerated air conditioning.

In the daytime Bowlero will roll out the red carpet to the ladies with Homemaker and Young Mothers lesson programs and leagues which will include the baby-sitting facilities of a tastefully designed indoor-outdoor play area for the youngsters.

Thompson already has announced plans for the Bowlero School of Bowling which will offer FREE instruction classes for the ladies.

On Saturday mornings and on weekday afternoons, the Bowlero Junior Bowlers' program will be featured. Special prices and programs will be arranged for the youngsters.

"An expert staff of instructors will be available every day," Thompson promises. "Our specially designed public address system will help us teach the free Bowlero School of Bowling Classes with a minimum of confusion and a maximum of fun for everyone."

"We have just one goal," Thompson declared. "We're going to make bowling cool fun for everyone. Day, night, swingshift leagues or open bowling, Bowlero will do everything possible to make this great entertainment recreation even more enjoyable for our neighbors in Lemon Grove, La Mesa and surrounding areas.

Bowlero Offers Bowling School

The school of bowling is an all-free course of instruction by qualified experts which will be given to women on a daily basis with the opening of the new center.

The completely free, full course in bowling is something new in Lemon Grove. The courses even includes the use of shoes and ball. Homemaker and young mothers' lessons will be held on a daily basis. The Bowlero junior bowlers' program will be featured on Saturday mornings and weekday afternoons.

A specially designed microphone and loudspeaker system will be used on the lanes to facilitate the instruction periods.

Girls Offered Something New At Bowlero

A special "Something for the Girls" Jamboree, featuring $150,000 in prizes will be an added attraction for women bowlers soon after opening day at Lemon Grove Bowlero.

Highlighted by a top prize of the most wanted automobile in the world, a Mercedes-Benz 190sl Roadster, the Jamboree is a joint project of Bowlero and Brunswick.

All women entering the free bowling classes will be eligible to win the more than 5,000 different prizes being offered.

In addition to the Mercedes, top winners will receive free full-length mink coats, two-week summer heiress vacation, Esther Williams swimming pools, lark station wagons, mink stoles and many others.

League Bowlers Find Bowlero Better Than Ever

League bowling will be better than ever in Lemon Grove with the opening of the beautiful new 40-Lane Bowlero at 7065 Broadway.

Bowlero's "2-C Plan" for all league bowlers — courtesy and convenience—is the reason.

The Bowlero management's successful experience in catering to the smallest details will insure the "happiest leagues in Lemon Grove."

The Bowlero operation knows what bowlers want and will provide it for them in the surroundings of one of the most striking bowling centers in the nation.

Although many leagues already have been organized for the coming season at Bowlero, there are still some choice times available for leagues, teams and individuals.

New $2,000,000 Lemon Grove Bowlero opening Saturday.

New Lemon Grove Bowlero Makes Firm's Investment Reach $7 Million

The nationally-known Bowlero chain this month opens two new centers—in Maryvale Shopping City at Phoenix, and in Lemon Grove, bringing to $7,000,000 the firm's total investment in modern bowling lanes.

Other units already in operation include the 54-lane New Jersey Bowlero in Clifton, N.J., and the 56-lane Mission Valley Bowlero in the "Vacation Strip" development along Highway 80 in San Diego.

Serving Greater Phoenix with 32 lanes, the Maryvale plant is located in Maryvale Shopping City, in the heart of the giant home subdivision built by John F. Long, one of America's foremost home builders. Lemon Grove Bowlero is at 7065 Broadway, near College Avenue.

The system last year drew the attention of Life Magazine, which published a three-and-a-half page story on the system under the heading: "A New Luxury World of Bowling."

The magazine recalled that the bowling alley "once was stuck shame-facedly in a backstreet basement."

But, Life said, the bowling lane now has acquired "a stunning elegance and has bloomed into an all-purpose pleasure palace offering a variety in entertainment and luxury.

It was the Bowlero chain that the magazine chose to best illustrate its point.

Each Bowlero has special programs for children, and special instruction for homemakers and young mothers. Industrial leagues are featured, too, as well as regular hours set aside for the individual and small independent groups.

Each Bowlero has its own striking decor and modern lines. There are locker rooms, league meeting rooms, cocktail lounges, restaurant and pro shops.

President of the Bowlero organization is Jack H. Skirball, who with his brother, William, has been active in the entertainment industry for more than 25 years.

Their interests include the Skirball Brothers theatre chain and Skirball Productions, an independent film production company with headquarters in the TCF television lot in Holloywood.

C. V. "Tommy" Thompson, for 20 years one of Southern California's leading bowling operators, is western general manager. Fred Schmidt Jr., who with his father perfected one of the first automatic pin-spotting machines, is eastern manager at Clifton, New Jersey.

The Maryvale Bowlero, a 32-lane establishment in the Maryvale Shopping City development at Phoenix, scheduled its opening for Friday, Aug. 28, just one week ahead of the 40-lane Lemon Grove Bowlero.

Other units already in operation include the 54-lane New Jersey Bowlero in Clifton, N.J., and the 56-lane Mission Valley Bowlero in San Diego. Mission Valley Bowlero, site of the upcoming $30,000 San Diego National singles classic, soon will be expanded to 72 lanes.

The Lemon Grove Bowlero, a $2,000,000 project, occupies a strategic location opposite the 80-acre College Grove shopping center. Its dramatic design, by Paderewski, Mitchell, Dean and Associates, AIA, has been set off by a attractive canopy which has become the symbol of Bowlero's modern architecture.

Maryvale Bowlero is integrated into a lavish shopping city designed by Victor Gruen and Associates for John F. Long, Arizona developer. The interior design of both Lemon Grove and Maryvale was developed under supervision of Jeanette Dyer Spencer, of San Francisco, one of the nation's foremost decorators.

Both new Bowleros feature the latest in Brunswick automatic equipment and have novel indoor-out-door play areas for children and mammonth refrigerated air-conditioning plants.

A new idea in bowling food service, the Bowlero Buffeteria, also has been introduced at both centers. The Buffeteria operation offers both buffet-type and banquet style food services.

Ken Caldwell, former owner-manager of the Fairview Lanes in Rockford, Ill., has been named bowling manager at Lemon Grove while Phil Sloan, formerly of Long Beach, has been selected as resident manager at Maryvale, according to Thompson.

Lemon Grove Selection Based Upon Big Growth

The selection of Lemon Grove for the nation's fourth Bowlero was based upon extensive survey which confirmed what Lemon Grove residents have known for quite a time—they live in one of the most dynamic and fastest growing areas of the United States.

Jack H. Skirball, president of the Bowlero organization which plans a September 5 opening for its 40-lane bowling center at 7065 Broadway, said his group had researched Lemon Grove for almost a year before the opportunity of becoming a part of the community arose.

Skirball and his brother William, also an officer of the Bowlero organization, have been active in the entertainment industry for more than 25 years. Their interests include the Skirball Brothers theater chain and Skirball Productions, an independent film production organization headquarters on the TCF Television lot in Hollywood.

The Bowlero organization includes some of the nation's outstanding entertainment and bowling figures. C. V. "Tommy" Thompson, for 20 years one of Southern California's leading bowling operators, is western general manager while Fred Schmidt Jr., who with his father perfected one of the first automatic pin-setting devices, is eastern manager.

Lemon Grove Bowlero 4th In Nation

What is Bowlero?

Under the heading "A New Luxury World of Bowling," Life Magazine last year singled out Bowlero with three and a half pages of pictures and text.

Bowlero is bowling at its finest — an organization that is marked by the most modern bowling centers in Lemon Grove and three other American communities.

All Bowleros are marked by the "extra touches" of quality and convenience. The first Bowlero was built in Clifton, N.J., and carries the name New Jersey Bowlero. Then came the 56-lane Mission Valley Bowlero in San Diego.

To this list will be added the new Phoenix Bowlero at Maryvale Shopping City, and the Lemon Grove Bowlero, at 7065 Broadway, Lemon Grove.

The Bowlero operations represent total investments of more than $7,000,000.

As Life Magazine said: "The American bowling alley once stuck shamefacedly in a backstreet basement, has acquired a stunning elegance and has bloomed into an all-purpose pleasure palace offering a variety in entertainment and luxury."

And Bowlero means bowling at its finest.

Bowlero Has Everything: Automation, Baby Sitters

Everything from automatic pinsetters to baby-sitting service for mothers will be offered when Lemon Grove Bowlero opens Saturday.

C. V. Thompson, California & Arizona Gen. Manager of the new 40-lane Bowling center, said interior decorating and installation of Brunswick equipment is nearing completion.

Lemon Grove's newest recreational facility will provide bowlers in this area with the most modern equipment available including Brunswick Automatic Pinsetters, Tel-E-Fouls, Subway Ball returns and Tel-E-Scores.

"We are installing the complete line of Brunswick equipment," Thompson said, "to enable Lemon Grove bowlers to enjoy their sport under the finest conditions available."

The $2,000,000 recreation center nearing completion at Lemon Grove also will feature a supervised indoor-outdoor playroom for use by the children of bowling mothers.

Bowling, Good Food Just Go Together

Bowling and good food expertly prepared, quickly served and moderately priced just naturally go together.

And to satisfy the bowlers' and shoppers' appetite at Lemon Grove, Bowlero has carefully planned the Bowlero Buffeteria, and the adjoining glamorous Lantern Inn.

Lemon Grove Bowlero will offer more than a bowling center coffee shop. It will provide service for the concourse, and comfortable buffeteria seating and will offer a tempting daily menu featuring hot entrees as well as salads and sandwiches.

Additional fine food and cocktails will be featured in the Lantern Inn. A sneak preview of the Lantern Inn indicates it is destied to become the talk of Lemon Grove.

In addition to dinner and luncheon, Lemon Grove Bowlero will cater to luncheon and dinner clubs and other organizations in two banquet rooms with seating capacity of up to 100.

TV's Johnny Downs, Bozo the Clown To be in Town

Pretty Girls to Appear; Square Dancers Set

Don Diego Market at Broadway and Olive will hold a "grand opening" Thursday through Saturday of this week, Johnny Ambler, co-owner with Lauren Kuentzel, said.

"We're planning quite a blowout," Ambler said.

On the schedule are pretty girls (Models Carol Gardner and Norma Hiney) who will greet visitors and pass out orchids for the ladies.

Television's Johnny Downs will be at the store at 2 p.m. Saturday with his "Howdy, howdy, howdy" for the kids. Kuentzel said that "some of us" tried to find out just why Downs is so popular with the youngsters.

"We finally figured out that there isn't any secret at all," he said; "Johnny just likes kids."

Clarence Mongomery, acclaimed one of the Southland's most popular dance callers, will call dances starting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. A group of dancers from the Levis and Laces Square Dance Club will put on an exhibition. In the group will be Roy and Beth Wentzel, Charlie and Edna Teter, Jack and Helen Sailors, John and Helen Blecha, Floyd and Ramona Bryant, Phil and Audree Burch, Bill and Betty Neuner and Clyde and Ramona Walker.

Bozo the Clown of television fame is scheduled to make an appearance at the Don Diego Market at 10 a.m. Saturday. He will talk with the kiddies and put on some of his famous tricks.

Also scheduled for the three-day festival are special food demonstrations designed, according to the store owners, to show new ways to serve family favorites, as well as new and inexpensive methods of preparing foods and purchasing to save on the family food budget.

Leon Shepard, in charge of the meat department, said that butchers will be "standing by" in the department at all times "to see that the customers find what they want."

Meats are cut and wrapped to the specifications of the customers, Shepard said, "because we believe that the customer should be able to get thin steaks or thick steaks or fat chops or lean chops or any other thing she wants when she come in to buy meat."

Ray Anderson, who supervises the produce department in the market, said that the store is particularly interested in seeing that its customers can get the the freshest fruits and vegetables possible.

"The entire store," Kuentzel said "is laid out for economical shopping. Food arrangements offer efficient selection. The aisles are wide and uncluttered so you can pass other shoppers without sidetracking or bumping.

"We have tried to maintain the small store atmosphere and still offer all the services of a large market. We want our customers to feel at ease and not rushed. Our check stands are set up so there isn't any long waiting in the check line.

"When a customer comes in, she can browse around if she wants to or she can look around a moment, easily find what she wants, get through the check stand quickly and go on to whatever else it is that she must do elsewhere."

These two charming young ladies, Carol Gardner on the left, and Norma Hiney on the right, will be hostesses at the grand opening ceremonies at Don Diego market in Lemon Grove. They will give orchids to the ladies. The two girls are models at Patricia's in Lemon Grove.

Bozo the Clown, a kiddies' television favorite, will be at the market too.

TV's Johnny Downs will be at Don Diego Market at 2 p.m. Saturday to greet the youngsters with his "Howdy, howdy, howdy."

"PRAISE GOD IN PRAYER"

The best cure for self-pity is to offer praise to someone else. A good, healthy condition comes into the heart and life of the person who praises God in prayer. Praise God because He is loving, kind and just. Praise Him for all His gifts. Praise God because all that we have comes from Him.

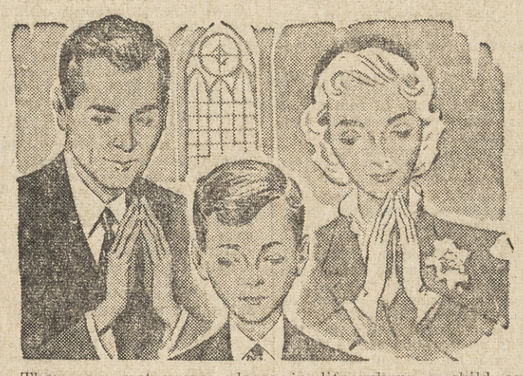
LET US ALL PRAY TOGETHER AS A FAMILY



There are not many places in life where a child can have a leisurely relationship with a splendid Christian adult. The world of a child is apt to be far removed from the busy world of grown people, and yet every child is poor who does not have adults who take the time to be real friends.

High School Staffs Begin Pre-School Activities This Week

Staffs of the Grossmont Union High School District's five high schools will get pre-school activities under way September 1 in order to have all schools ready when classes begin September 10. Teachers have workshop and planning sessions; faculty meetings are scheduled; a special program for new teachers is planned; and departments of the various school organize.

Helix, Grossmont and Mount Miguel High School counselors will register new students September 2, 3, and 4 and during the first week of September, new students will be tested to help counselors in recommending a correct program of studies for each pupil. Students attending these schools last semester have already registered for classes. Some of them have attended summer classes and because of that fact, may require a program change which can be arranged by counselors September 2, 3 or 4.

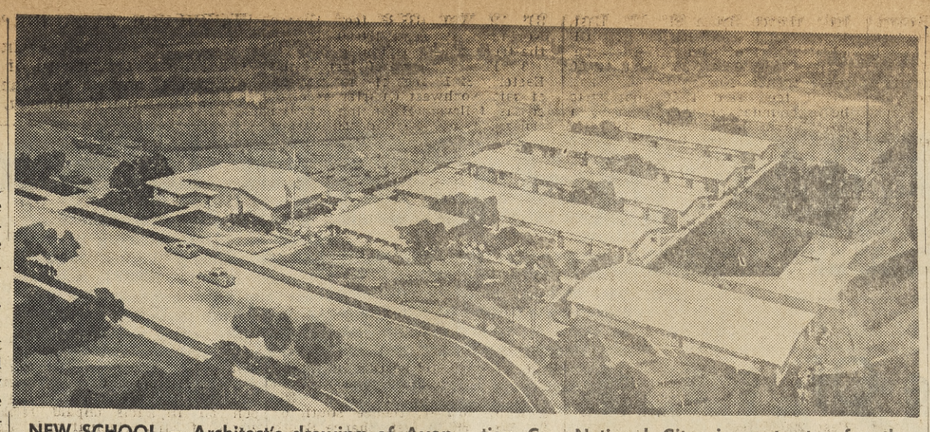
Freshmen students will report to their schools on September 8 to receive instructions, pick up their programs, meet their teachers for the first time, and learn the way from place to place. Grossmont freshmen report from 1 to 4 p.m. The Helix session is from 8 to 11:45 a.m. and Mount Miguel freshmen report from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

Road Requests In Spring Valley Thumbed Down

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Two road requests to the county from property owners in the Spring Valley area, one involving the development of the land owned by Fred J. Hansen, have been turned down by the County Planning Commission.

Hansen's request was for vacation of a right of way for the extension of Austin Road, from the present ending to Sweetwater Springs Boulevard. His request was denied, although he agreed to provide an alternate route, because subdividers have an option to buy the Hansen land and a master plan for its development is being prepared. Street locations cannot be determined until the master plan is done, the commission decided.

Also denied by the commission was the plea of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Dunbar for the county to accept into its system the northerly extension of Estrella Drive to Resmar Road. The road would pass through potential subdivision land and a subdivision map should be filed showing how the land is to be developed, the commission decided.



NEW SCHOOL — Architect's drawing of Avondale Elementary School under construction at 8401 Stansbury St., Spring Valley. Raymond Lee Eggers is architect and the Cotton Construction Co., National City, is contractor for the $324,200 school expected to be ready for occupancy in mid-December. School will have 16 classrooms and a principal's office.

14,000 Enrollment in Schools Seen For La Mesa-Spring Valley District

LA MESA—An enrollment of 14,000 to 15,000 students in the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District in the 1960-61 school year has been predicted by Dr. M. Ted Dixon, associate superintendent, in a report to principals, coordinators and directors of the district.

The administrators, engaged in week-long workshops devoted to many educational problems affecting the district, also heard of the possibility that school enrollment may double within the next five years from the enrollment last year of 9,426. The district had 2,049 pupils in 1946.

A growth of 22 per cent, or a projected enrollment of 11,600 is expected next year, Dr. Dixon said.

In discussing the growth trend, Dr. Dixon explained that the present expansion has exceeded expectations of a year and a half ago when the estimate was an expansion of 600 a year.

The 24-square-mile district will have 15 schools in operation when school opens Sept. 10 including one school in Spring Valley Estates, Avondale, which will not be ready for occupancy but whose pupils will occupy temporary classrooms at other school sites.

Classrooms are under construction at five other sites, Dr. Dixon said, with a total of 47 classrooms, two kindergartens and a multipurpose room and an office being included.

Present plans are "on the drawing boards" for the Rancho Elementary School, he said, and are expected to develop rapidly for the North La Mesa Junior High School and for Highlands and La Presa elementary schools.

In other activities in the administrators workshop, Mary C. Evans, curriculum specialist, reported on results of experiments in the teaching of reading through the grouping of pupils which were conducted last year. Lyda M. Smiley, coordinator of health, physical education and safety, reported the results of a physical performance testing program.

The elementary and junior high school principals and coordinators, under the chairmanship of Dr. David Pascoe, assistant superintendent, also explored topics dealing with pupil growth reports, teacher-parent conferences, in-service training of teachers, the music program in the schools, new materials available for classroom use, and the like.

In her report, Miss Evans reviewed the decision in the 1958-59 school year to group pupils in classes according to reading needs. In general, she said, this resulted in grouping of advanced readers, of pupils with reading ability close to grade level expectancies and a group of slow readers.

She emphasized the grouping was done on the basis of educational needs rather than upon ability.

She also reviewed some of the techniques of instruction, and the effort to weave other areas of the curriculum, such as science, social studies, health, the arts and the like into the reading program.

Miss Evans reported that samplings of test results have supported the emphasis on reading with significant numbers of youngsters showing gains in reading ability. In the handicapped groups, for example, 3.4 per cent of the entire group showed a gain in reading ability from the lowest group to the highest group, another 8 per cent a gain from the lowest group to the next highest group, and 28.6 per cent who moved from the handicapped group to the next highest group. Similar gains were reported in other groups.

On the physical performance tests, which were given to pupils in grade five through eight, Miss Smiley said the results indicated improvement in most motor skills areas in the period from fall, 1958, to the spring, 1959.

She noted that there appears to be more improvement made by boys than by girls in all areas. The girls, she said, should be stronger in the softball throw test and in the 50-yard dash. A weak area for boys was the pull-up. She recommended that more activities involving use of shoulder muscles be included in the physical education program for boys this year.

DOROTHY DIGS in the garden

Wherever the big red fire ants are prevalent they become a great nuisance. Chlordane products, recommended for ants in general, are quite effective, but I have a method of my own that I think is better than anything else.

It is always easy to locate the nest of the ants by the hole in the ground through which they come and go. Success in controlling any kind of insect life depends on knowing their habits and, at dusk, red ants all go down into the nest for the night. If you wait until dusk and then pour some borer solution, containing ethylene dichloride, right out of the bottle into that hole, cover the opening so as to seal the fumes underground, they will spread throughout the nest and destroy the entire colony of ants.

If you do this at the end of the day wherever you see the opening of an ant's nest, you will get rid of this menace.

—o—

Since flower pots cost a lot of money these days, most people save theirs and use them over and over. If you follow this practice, be particular not to let them lie around until they accumulate an algae in the form of of greenish moss-like substance. If your flower pots get in this condition, no new plants you put in them will be healthy.

Protect your old flower pots by cleaning them thoroughly before you use them again and, after cleaning, wash them with the copper-ether material of which I am so fond. The ether will penetrate the pores of the flower pots and the copper will immediately "follow through" and destroy fungus spores. It will also eliminate the greenish accumulation on the pots.

While you have the material mixed in your sprayer or your sprinkling can, it's a good idea to spray or sprinkle the ground where the pots had been lying in order to disinfect and clear up the unhealthy condition.
